TO LIVE IN THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, in celebrating the Solemnity of Pentecost today, we celebrate the birth day of the Catholic Church and the working of the Holy Spirit in the Catholic Church from the times of the Apostles till today. Today the Catholic Church is born and this Catholicity, which means, “Universal” is in the Divine plan of God. “Why?” It is because God sent the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles in form of the tongues of fire and at the time when there were many people from various nations who had come to worship in Jerusalem. Indeed, the Holy Spirit came upon them in tongues of fire for they were going to proclaim the saving message of salvation by means of the Word that was pronounced by the tongue. They were also being empowered by the Holy Spirit. The Catholic aspect of the Church is evident on the day of Pentecost because of the many nationalities present. Though they were many, they all understood the proclamation of the Good News by the Apostles.

In the Old Testament, due to human pride, the people wanted to construct the Tower of Babel so as to reach God and also to

HOLY TRINITY SUNDAY

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of Deuteronomy 4:32-34.39-40

“The Lord is God indeed, in heaven above as on earth beneath, he and no other.”

Moses said to the people: Tut this question to the ages that are past, that went before you, from the time God created man on earth; Was there ever a word so majestic, from one end of heaven to the other? Was anything ever heard? Did ever a people hear the voice of the living God speaking from the heart of the fire, as you heard it, and remain alive? Has any god ventured to take to himself one nation from the midst of another by ordeals, signs, wonders, war with mighty hand and outstretched arm, by fearsome terrors - all this that the Lord your God did for you before your eyes in Egypt? ‘Understand this today, therefore, and take it to heart: The Lord is God indeed, in heaven above as on earth beneath, he and no other. Keep his laws and commandments as I give them to you today so that you and your children may prosper and live long in the land that the Lord your God gives you for ever.’

This is the word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM*Ps 32:4-6.9.18-20.22. $ v.12Response: Happy the people the Lord has chosen as his own.

The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted. The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love.

Rs

By his word the heavens were made, by the breath of his mouth all the stars. He spoke; and they came to be. He commanded; they sprang into being. Rs

The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine. Rs

Our soul is waiting for the Lord. The Lord is our help and our shield. May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you. Rs

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans 8:14-17

“You received the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, ‘Abba, Father!’”

Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, ‘Abba, Father!’ The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you. And know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.’

This is the word of the Lord.

GOSPEL

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mathew 28, 16-20

Baptize them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

The Eleven disciples set out for Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had arranged to meet them. When they saw him they fell down before him, though some hesitated. Jesus came up and spoke to them. He said, “All authority in heaven and on earth had been given to me. Go therefore, make disciples of all the nations; baptize them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you. And know that I am with you always; yes to the end of time.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

ESSOMOI

Omukama yennyini ye Katonda, waggulu eyo, ne wano wansi, teri mulala.

Bye tusoma mu kitabo ky’Amateeka. (4, 32-34. 39-40)

Awo Musa n’agamba abantu, nti; Kale ssa ekibuuzo kino ku mirembe egyayita, egyakukulembera, okuva mu budde Katonda lwe yatonda omuntu ku nsi: waali wabaddewo ekigambo eky’ekitiibwa bwe kityo, okuva ku nsonda emu ey’eggulu okutuuka ku ndala? Waaliwo ekintu ekyali kiwulidwa? Eggwanga lyali liwulidde eddoozi lya Katonda omulamu, nga lyogera okuva wakati w’omuliro, nga lwe mwaliwulira, ne lisigala nga ddamu? Waaliwo Katonda eyali agumye okweggyira eggwanga erimu wakati w’edala ng’ayita mu bigezo ebikakali, mu bubonero, mu byamagero, mu ntalo ez’amaanyi, n’omukono omugolole; mu kikangabwa ekitiisa? Byonna bino Omukama Katon-make a name for themselves. Indeed, we read, “Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves; otherwise we shall be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth” (Genesis 11:4). Pride led to division and misunderstandings due to the various languages. These misunderstandings are overcome by the working of the Holy Spirit who unites all the people in the Profession of one faith. St. Paul would thus later on write, “There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all” (Ephesians 4:4-6). This unity is to be striven for by all the Christians and so the Blessed Apostle exhorts us thus, “make every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace” (Ephesians 4:3).

In the Seven Sacraments, we experience the working of the Holy Spirit who sanctifies us. The Sacraments, therefore, are not empty rituals but rather are channels of God’s life of grace into our souls. In each and every Sacrament, that we celebrate, we receive the Holy Spirit. It is therefore wrong for some people to claim that the Holy Spirit is not present in the Church. The Holy Spirit is present and active in the Church in many ways, among which are the Word of God, the Sacraments, Prayer, and the Life of grace.

The Holy Spirit is present and active in the Church. The existence of the Catholic Church from the times of the Apostles till today cannot be due to human creativity but due to the work of God. Indeed, the learned Gamaliel once said, “Fellow Israelites, consider carefully what you propose to do to these men ... So in the present case, I tell you, keep away from these men and let them alone; because if this plan or this undertaking is of human origin, it will fail; but if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them; or else you may even be found fighting against God” (Act 5:35, 38-39). Jesus Christ Himself stresses that the Holy Spirit will guide the Church into all the Truth.

“Come Holy Spirit and inflame the hearts of your faithful. Amen.”
